Let's take a quick look to Liri Atelier together.

Liri is an Albanian word, means "Freedom". Birds, especially the pigeons are known as a symbol of freedom. Every unique piece of Liri Atelier has a name of species of pigeons.

Main objective of Liri Atelier and it's desings is complete your look with colorful, unique, functional forms of timeless desings.

Every single handmade bag has it's own unmatched ceramic accessory designed and made at hands of Sevcan Zumrutbel.

Our Founder and Creative Director Sevcan Zumrutbel was born in Istanbul at 1985. She has started her career at Finance & Economy and afterwards she discovered her creative side with ceramics and decided to start Vakko Esmod, Bag and Accessory Design. She successfully completed it with a degree and decided to create a brand.

So we proudly represent Liri Atelier!

Sevcan Zümrütbel, the founder and creative director of Liri, was born in 1985 in Istanbul.

After working in the financial sector for many years and experiencing the corporate life, she started a new adventure by designing and making ceramics.

Her passion for design and creation led her to complete her Bag and Accessory Design Training at Vakko Esmod and later on she founded the “LİRİ” brand.

Each bag in the collection of Liri -which means freedom- is named after the pigeon species identified with freedom.

With the fond to make colorful touches to modern life and their attraction oriented details, Liri bags will be perfect complement to your style at any time of the day, through their functional forms and timeless designs.

Additionally, we can not pass without mentioning that each ceramic accessory in the bags is completely handmade and produced by the founder of the brand.
